

Dear Prayer Partners, Friends, and Loved Ones,

May 27, 2010

Glorious day today preaching. We were up at 3:30am and in car at 4:30, returned to hotel tonight at 8:15 pm in hail of small volcanic rocks.

Preached with power to several hundred pastors in the southwestern part of Guatemala. Spent 8 plus hours of travel by car. We are back in hotel in much pain preparing to leave at 7:00am (in a few hours) to preach to another group of pastors for several hours. Today many pastors asked the Supt of 3,600 churches to schedule me to preach messages about revival two nights in each of their churches. This dear brother wants to schedule us to speak for 30 days in 12 to 15 churches throughout this area.

Judy and I have been told by the hotel to not go outside because of gas fumes from volcano and also there are rocks of different sizes being exploded up in the air and they can be dangerous if they hit you on the way down. There is a layer of volcanic ash 1 to 2 inches deep all over the hotel. Our car this evening had ash all over it and we had ash in our hair on our clothes. WE ARE IN NO DANGER. Airport, which we can see out of our window, has been closed for 6 hours and who knows when it will reopen. We are watching live pictures of the lava coming out of the volcano called Pacaya, which is less than 10 miles from our hotel. Also the sky that we can see from our room is red from the lava that is flowing out the back of the volcano

Too tired to explain more about the blessing of today. Will do that tomorrow or Saturday before we go to preach that evening in a red zone of Guatemala City.

Please pray for the meeting these next three days. We need energy and relief from pain.

Love in the Lord to each of you,
