

Dear Prayer Partners, Loved Ones, and Friends,

Sept 08, 2010

Previous newsletters have told you of my strong belief that revival is coming to Guatemala this year. My faith is not wavering.

Next week I leave without "my Judy", for a two-week trip to Costa Rica and Guatemala. My only message will be one of revival.

- In Costa Rica I will preach seven times, record four radio programs, record a thirty minute television program to be shown multiple times, and do a one-hour-interview on a Christian television network that reaches thirty-one countries. PLEASE PRAY THAT THIS TRIP WILL BE USED MIGHTILY OF THE LORD.
- In Guatemala, I have been asked to preach a revival message to several thousand pastors and leaders at the Annual National Convention of one of the largest denominations in that country. PLEASE PRAY THAT MANY WHO ATTEND THIS CONVENTION WILL BEGIN CRYING OUT TO THEIR LORD TO SEND REVIVAL TO GUATEMALA.

Through the gracious gift of a dear Christian friend from our college days, my airfare for all legs of this trip to Central America have been paid for, almost to the penny.

I had seriously contemplated riding the bus from Costa Rica to Guatemala to save that airfare for use in hotel and food expense. Before the convention, both Judy and Rigo were adamant that I should not make that 24-hour bus trip across three countries.

Rigo's crusade last week in lower Pavas, Costa Rica was greatly blessed of the Lord. There were many saved, as God honored the tremendous amount of intercessory prayer for the crusade. The Billy Graham organization taught Rigo, that the pre-crusade (intercessory prayer and training of counselors), and the post crusade (follow-up) are almost as important as the crusade itself.

Rigo and I are praying that God will continue to open the doors for him to hold several significant evangelistic crusades before the end of this year.

- In a Barriada (large slum area) of Lima, Peru, NOVEMBER
- In a stadium of Huehuetenango, Guatemala, NOVEMBER
- In two coastal cities in Northern Colombia. DECEMBER

PLEASE PRAY FOR THE SCHEDULING DETAILS, AND FINANCING OF THE TRAVEL FOR EACH OF THESE CRUSADES.

As for Judy and me, we are praying that finances will allow us in October to return to Guatemala and begin going city by city preaching two consecutive nights until revival begins in that country.

Health and age concerns have resulted in many continuing to encourage me not to travel alone.

- While in Costa Rica, Rigo will be my constant companion.
- Due to lack of funds Judy cannot meet me in Guatemala to travel with me in that country. Especially pray for health and journeying mercies for this part of my trip.

We are grateful for each of you who have stood with us through your prayers and support. Each of you have an investment in the lives and ministry that God has given the Moore and Vega families.

PRAYER REQUEST

1. For God to send a great revival to one country in the Americas, and that this revival will spread like wildfire from country to country including to the United States.
2. For God, during this two-week trip to Central America, to bless and use each preached message, for His Glory.
3. For God to bless and use each of the radio and television programs for His glory.
4. For God to bless the Revival message I will preach at the Guatemalan Convention (September 27-29).
5. For God to bless all the planning and finances that is required for the four Crusades that Rigo will preach in the next few months.

May our Lord richly bless you and use you mightily for His glory,
